

Spelling list: The ending ious

All these adjectives end in ious .

amphibious	Frogs, toads and many lizards are amphibious .
curious	I was curious to see how many people turned up.
delirious	He was delirious with happiness.
devious	We came up with a devious plan.
dubious	The evidence in this case is dubious .
furious	He was furious when he found out the truth.
harmonious	The sound of their harmonious voices rang out.
impervious	She was impervious to his charms.
melodious	She spoke with a calm, melodious voice.
notorious	The bandit was notorious .
oblivious	He was oblivious to the plan.
obvious	There was an obvious attraction between the couple.
precarious	His position as CEO was a precarious one.
previous	I've met her on two previous occasions.
rebellious	The child had a rebellious nature.
serious	The judge said it was a very serious crime.
studious	He was a quiet and studious person.
tedious	The journey was tedious but the destination was worth it.
various	There were various amusements at the carnival.

victorious

The victorious team celebrated in style.