

Spelling list: Non-statutory words: homophones #1 (copy)

Homophones and other words that are often confused.

aisle                    The bride walked down the aisle of the church.

isle                     The Isle of Skye is in Scotland.

aloud                  Read the words aloud .

affect                  The government cuts will affect everyone.

effect                  The special effects are incredible.

altar                    There are candles on the altar .

alter                    I'm going to alter my hair style.

ascent                  We continued our ascent of the mountain.

assent                  He gave a strong nod of assent .

bridal                  Her bridal gown was spectacular.

bridle                  Bridle - timber split into thirds.

cereal                  Most children like cereal for breakfast.

serial                  This TV drama is a weekly serial .

compliment          A compliment can make you feel good.

complement          Her scarf complemented her outfit.