

Spelling list: Spelling 28 01 21

activities	We have to take part in at least two activities a week.
including	I like all fruit, including apples.
congratulations	'Congratulations!' said Mum. 'It's your birthday!'.
apostrophe	You can use an apostrophe to show that something belongs to someone.
twelfth	I am twelfth in line to the throne.
pursuit	The fox was in pursuit of the mouse.
millionaire	The millionaire has lots of money.
criticism	He was upset by the criticism his mother gave him.
episode	I have watched my favorite episode of Friends over twenty times.
political	People have different political beliefs.
partial	Did you see the partial eclipse of the moon?
listening	I adore listening to songs on the radio.
represent	A father and son represent two generations.
counselling	I was given counselling after the accident.
council	There was a recent school council meeting.
universal	The rise in crime was met with universal concern.
financial	Financial means anything to do with money.
protection	Some people employ bodyguards for protection .
surge	There was a sudden surge in people wanting toilet rolls.
dignity	Statuesque means like a statue in stillness and dignity .

