Spelling list: GCSE English Literature: Language Features 1

Key words for GCSE English Literature.

word A word is the basic unit of language.

phrase A phrase is a small group of words.

writer's A writer's methods are the techniques and approaches a writer uses.

methods A writer's methods are the techniques and approaches a writer uses.

Your perspective is the way you look at something and what you think about it.

perspective

expression Expression is the communication of thoughts and feelings.

context The context is the setting and circumstance of an event.

A quotation is the direct use of a word, phrase, or sentence from another quotation source.

A linguistic device, such as hyperbole or a metaphor, is used in writing to linguistic create effect.

A linguistic device , such as hyperbole or a metaphor, is used in writing to device

create effect.

sound A sound is anything that can be heard.

syntax Syntax is the arrangement of words and phrases.

emphasis If you put emphasis on something, it means you give it importance.

A pun is a humorous play on words that suggests multiple meanings behind an idea.

comedy Comedy is an amusing and satirical genre.

pun

humour is the quality of being funny.

stereotype A stereotype is a common but oversimplified portrayal of someone.

suspense Suspense is the building of tension in a plot.