

Spelling list: Non-statutory words: homophones #1

Homophones and other words that are often confused.

aisle                    The bride walked down the aisle of the church.

isle                     The Isle of Skye is in Scotland.

aloud                  Read the words aloud .

affect                 The government cuts will affect everyone.

effect                 The special effects are incredible.

altar                    There are candles on the altar .

alter                    I'm going to alter my hair style.

ascent                 We continued our ascent of the mountain.

assent                 He gave a strong nod of assent .

bridal                 Her bridal gown was spectacular.

bridle                 Bridle - timber split into thirds.

cereal                 Most children like cereal for breakfast.

serial                 This TV drama is a weekly serial .

compliment         A compliment can make you feel good.

complement         Her scarf complemented her outfit.